THE SPY MANIA IN JAPAN

Strange Behaviour of Otau Children.

Some time ago we (Kobe Chronicle) mentioned the fact that the children of Otsu had organised themselves into a kind of association and that instead of the grown-ups parading the town on the news of any Japanese success becoming known the children formed into procession, and with bands and banners marched through the streets accompanied by a few adults who sesisted in the marshalling. It would seem that the youngaters have become somewhat precocious, and what at first appeared quite a harmless demonstration has developed into an annoyance to at

> The children of Otsu have got it into their minds (and they could not very well have supposed such a thing if grown-up people had not suggested it to them) that Nagai Chosuke is a Russian spy. Every night in the course of their processions of late the children are reported to have halted outside the man's house and created a great disturbance. Beating their drums and creating a general pandemonium they shout their accusations and call for the unfortunate man to come out. Should he or any of his family fail to make an appearance the juvenile demonstrators knock at his door and throw stones and other missiles as a gentle reminder of their disapproval. This went on for several days until at last the alleged 'spy' could stand it no longer and was obliged to seek the protection of the police. Some of the youngsters have been taken to the police station and it is to be hoped they have been punished. The adults countenending such behaviour would cuting Attorney Smith filed a bill of exceptions to the finding of the court and then appealed the case to the Supreme Court. In view of the appeal the prosecuting at-TILEMENTARY Shorthand to 120 torney asked that bail be fixed for the defendants. The Court announced that bail pending appeal would be fixed to-day at three a'clock.

Senor Pina and Senor Gardiner, the assessors who sat with Judge Ambler during the trial filed an opinion as to their decision in the case. The prosecuting attorney moved to have the same struck from the records of the case prior to making the appeal. The Court, overruled the motion, and their statement is a part of the re-

While the evidence at first seemed excoptionally strong, yet as the case proceeded it developed more and more that the chief pillar on which the government depended to establish its charges was the witness Scarells, and it also developed that this pillar was exceptionally weak. Beneath the cover of words Judge Ambler practically intimates that Scarolla is a list." goo With this prop weakened, the case of the government received a severe shock-a shock from which it seems it could not

> So far as policy is concerned, the finding of 'guilty' might best have subserved the interests of these islands, but even the most radical could not contend for convintion outside of the facts presented in court. As a people we are inclined to be fair, and an honest and unawervable judiciary is one of our proudest boasts. In the light of this. we must commend the judgment of the court which made the ends of policy subservient to the ideals of justice. Gomen is not yes out of the woods, however. Ap-

THE RUSSO-JAPNESE WAR.

[N.-C. DAILY NEWS BERVICE.]

Japanese and the Red Cross. Токто, Мау 13. It is announced that the Japanese at Pulantien sighted on the 6th instant a train from Port Arthur without any Red Cross mark, which fired on them. The Japanese replied, and then the Russians hoisted the Red Cross flag. The Japanese intended to examine the cars. which, however, went ahead at full speed, and escaped.

Protecting the Seoul-Fusan Railway.

Tonio, May 13. Troops have been dispatched from Seculand Fusan for the protection of the Seoul-Fusan railway.

Russian Prisoners from the Yalu. Токто, Мау 13.

The Yalu prisoners, consisting of 16 officers, of whom hine are wounded, and 415 men, of whom 265 are wounded, will arrive at Shikeke to-morrow.

Russian Raids on North Corea. Токто, Мау 13.

A portion of the Russians are crossing the Pyongan and Hamkyong borders. Russians who have failed to join their camp are now continually raiding the frontear districts.

Japanese Tactica.

Apparently the Japanese (says the N.-O. Duily Neva) have no more intention this of falling into the trap pre for them by the Russians, by storming the Mo-tionling Pass, than they did in 1894 in the war with China, for according to a telegraphic disparch received by the local mandarine a large Japanese force has occupied a strong post to the north of Fonghuangebeng and some miles to the south-west of Saimachi, called Aiyang, which leads one to believe that, as in 1894, the Motionling Pass is to be turned instead of being subjected to a frontal attack, which last would mean useless loss of many valuable Japanese lives and what is more loss of time. Once the Motionling is turned and the Japanese force gets to the rear of it, Liaoyang must fall into the latters' hands, as well as the whole of South and South-eastern Fengtien, including the Lisetung Poninsula with Port Arthur, Dainy and their depen dencies a matter of a fortnight or se-

The Echa de Chine of May 13 says that it announced from St. Petersburg that two trains reached Port Arthur on Monday night May 9

Awful Warning to Japan.

The Echn de Chine has a leading article by 'X' in which the Russians are consoled for their defeats by being assured they have all occurred through their undervaluing their enemy. This will now be remedied, and in his concluding paragraph 'X' warns the Japanese what they have now to expect :- 'The wounded white bear will rise ! up again more terrible than ever, his fur bristling as he shakes off the few drops of blood which might stain his robe, and throws himself on his prey with little hought of pity as a slight irritation near his beart reminds him of the first bullet he received.

> HOW MEN HAVE MISSED MAKING FORTUNES.

It is astounding how many men may everywhere be found who are discontented -who feel instinctively that they were born for better things; who in some way, they scarce know how, have allowed life's golden opportunities to pass them by, failing to achieve what they believe might have been, may should have been, theirs. No one can point to any definite defect in them, yet they have failed. Why have they failed?

To the expert observer the cause is very obvious. Success is achieved only by energy, and energy is what they lack. Now, energy, whether of the hand or the head, is produced by food. A starved man can neither dig the ground properly nor think out a insticr clearly. Has a man, therefore, in order to become emergetic, merely to be supplied with good food? No; unfortunately the case is not so simple as that. The food that he eats must do its work properly; must make rich, pure blood, and repair the waste which is continually taking place in his system. Food can only do this when the digestime organs are in perfect working order. In persons whose digestion is impaired food stagnates, creates gase in the stomach, and not only fails to properly sustain them but aggravates their complaint and poisons

It is just here where Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup comes in. It is the one thing that oures indigestion, and all the numerous maladies of which it is the parent, and in that way may be regarded as an unrivalled source to energy. When in Tasmania four years ago I was attacked by a serious illness,' says Mr Bowden, of 23, Pring Street, Woolfoomooloo, Sydney, N.S.W. 'I could neither out, sleep, nor rest. A doctor whom I consulted said I was suffering from dyspepsia, and gave me some medicine, which patched me up for awbile; but I was soon as bad as every again. Another doctor attended me for two months; but I received no benefit from his treatment, nor at the hospital where I afterwards went. My appetite almost ceased and the litt's I ats disagreed with me. I became dull and languid, and everything was trouble to me. Accepting the advice of a friend to try Mother Seigel's Syrup, these troubles soon disappeared. After a few doses, I felt better than I had done for months past. By the time I had taken five bettles I was restored to health and energy.

Just so. That is precisely the effect that

Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup produces. Not only does that medicine eradicate disease; it only does that medicine eradicate disease to promotes health and energy, those absolutely indispensable qualities in all who are called upon to fight life's battle. It is a parely natural upon to fight life's battle. It is a parely natural tonic, composed of fruits, roots, and herbs, containing no mineral substance whatever. For thirty-five years it has occupied the first place among all medicines whatever; and evidence among all medicines whatever; and evidence as to its curative power is constantly forthcom-ing from the sixteen principal countries of the Indigestion and biliousness are what some medical authorities term 'root diseases; that is to say, if those complaints are neglected, they develop into others even more serious. More often than not, medicines supposed to be remedies are at first resorted to. Sometimes these are persevered with for considerable periods, resulting in loss of time and needless suffering, besides rendering the subsequent cure by Mother Seigel's Syrup more difficult. In these circumstances Mr Bowden is to be congratulated on having his attention so early directed to Mother Seigel's Syrup, and upon the happy result of his use of it.

He commences by emphasising the fact that when the war between Russia and Japan is finished China may have a serious difficulty to face. The division of the Empire must come unless China herself can prevent it; but China needs soldiers and to maintain soldiers funds are required. This brings the Inspector General down to $15.00 the bed-rock of his articles. The safety of China lies in her defensive powers, A Whisky that is perfect with 'TAN- the up-keep of which must be provided for. He states that the revenue of China, comprising Customs Duties, Salt Gabelle, Land Tax, etc., amounts to only about Taels 80,000,000, and more than half is mortgaged for the payment of Foreign Loans, Indemnities, etc. The maintenance of a standing army of any great dimensions by China, while her revenue is so low, is, there fore, impracticable. To raise the necessary money to provide for the maintenance of an army and navy adequate to keep the integrity of China assured, the Inspector of Customs suggests the imposition of a Land Tax. The Seventh Ordinary General Meeting of the Punjom Mining Company, Limited, will be held at the office of the Company, No. 13, Beaconsfield Aroide, Hongkong,

The report is as follows: Gentlement The Directors have now to submit to you their Report on the working of the Company and a Statement of Accounts for the year ended 31st December, 1903. From these it will be seen that the hope expressed in the last report that a more flourishing state of affairs would exist at the end of the year, has not been realized. which may be accounted for by the fact that the country comprising area of our operations has proved to be too. broken up, too disturbed by volcanic sotion, and the auriferous land too patchy to be relied upon. To persist in carrying on unremunerative work in this land any longer was therefore not considered expedient. In view of this fact the Directors decided to obtain the opinion of an impartial mining expert to report fully upon the property, which would enable them to determine how. much of the concession it would be necessary and advisable to retain and to develop In pursuit of this decision they negotiated with Mr C. The defeat of the Russian forces at the Yalu River, and the subsequent occupation of Russian positions at Antung and later at Feng-hwang-cheng, have combined to cause the people of Japan to almost lose, their heads. DISCUSSION ON OPIUM BILL. To the Editor of the ! OHINA MAIL. Honokong, May 20, 1904.

Sin, -The discussion on the opium ques tion which has been reported verbatim gives one some insight into the dislection capabilities of the members of the Government, official and unofficial. The learned Attorney General took up the position that the Government had given a monopoly to the Opium Farmer, which it was desirable to protect, that the Anti-Opium Pillites were engaged in a traffic that was illicit and of little individual importance, and that would be no hardship to anyone if they were deprived of their alleged illicit business. If the Attorney General had limited his range of view, as the Governor did, to the contention that the Government ought to see that the Opium Farmer received full value, in the shape of a complete monopoly, for the large contribution to the revenue of the Colony, his position might have been unassailable. But when the learned gentlethe Anti-Pillite traffic was illicit, he only showed how far an extremely able man can allow himself to be carried away in a worthy endsevour to support his own side of the House. It is the case of a in the habit of smuggling and the authorities decision, which the Attorney General believes would have been upheld by the Supreme Court, has also the unqualified approval of no less a person than the Attorney General himself; and the latter in the act of declaring the traffic is illicit is engaged in carrying through a Bill which recognises that the traffic is legal and the object of which is to make the traffic illicit. Truly the ways of an Attorney General, like those of Providence, are inscrutable. After speeches of great power from the

Hon. Mr Pollock, and the Hon. Dr Ho Kai the Hon. Mr Gershom Stewart feels compelled to interpose. He approved the monopoly of the Farmers. But soon after he remarked that he understood that the Government took steps to counteract the morphine habit. 'The Bill, 'he now says, 'is merely an application of the same principle. The object of the Bill he first stated to be the protection of the Opium Farmers: now, apparently, is of so technical a nature that he cannot give an opinion upon its inner workings, and also disclaims any intention of entering into the legal merits of the question. Thereupon he proceeds to question the decision of the Magistrate (and of the Attortray General) who was unable to determine how an opium pill was made, and personally gives what he calls 'a common sense view ' of the 'inner workings' of a pill. Finally the Hon. Gentleman said :- 'It is odd to find that there are 83 places which deal in opium. thought there was only one. In that case we may have a thousand apparently.'

being crowded with members of the trade, merchants, buyers and brokers. Many planters also were present. Sir West Ridgeway presided and opened the proceedings with an elequent speech which was loudly applauded. The Covlon speakers were :- Messrs H. K. Rutherford and R. A. Bosanquet.

Mr H. K. Rutherford, in a closely argued speech, said that, if, under the new condition of an 8d. duty, an excessive supply of ton was to cause consumption to be unchecked, the Chancellor of the Exchequer might next year add another 2d. to the duty. Moderate supplies were our only Mesars Band (? Shand) and R. A. Bosanquet also emphasised this, and pointed out the necessity for unity and alluded to the moderation of producers. Mr T. A WOMAN'S TERROR.

THOUGHT SHE WAS GOING BLIND. WHAT DE WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS SAVED HER FROM.

MRS Young, 87, Yorkhill-atreet, Over-newton, Scotland, suffered, as the result of almost entire bloodleseness, from a very severe form of chronic Dyspepsia or Indigention. This led to a diseased state of the Liver, which (as often happens) caused the optical illusion of black specks floating before the eyes Not understanding her ailment, Mrs Young was greatly alarmed, and thought she was going blind. Anemia or bloodlessness is often a cause of Indigestion. Our food nourishes us by being dissolved in the stomach and absorbed by the blood, If this blood is in a thin, watery state, which is really what Doctors mean when they say we are anumic, or have 'Too Little Blood' (the same thing put into English) it is unable to absorb nourishment from the food. Consequently we become thin, pale and weak, and the stomach is irritated by the presence of food which it cannot digest, and that is what we call Indigestion, or, if we prefer to speak Greek | Co. instead of good, plain English, Dyspepia, The Liver suffers along with the stomach from the inability of the blood to do its work, and then we have Bile, a nasty, dull pain between the shoulders, spots floating before the eyes (seen by ourselves, but of course invisible by other people), and presently disease of the kidneys, which gives rise to a pain in the small of the back and other symptome.

Now, the old-fashioned way of treating such a state of the body is to excite the stomach by purgatives or opening medicine, antibilious pills, and other irritating drugs, still ignorantly taken by many people. But the new, scientific cu e is to remedy the cause of the disease by taking something which enriches the blood and purities it of bad metter, Dr Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People make New Blood. This New Blood, rich, pure and (what is very impertant to women) regular absorbs nourish ment from the lood, and not only cures the Indegestion itself, but also greatly a rengthens the body giving plumpness and a good colour to the cheeks and lips. It is, in fact, New Life Dr Williams Pink Pills for Palo Peorle g ve New Blood with every dose, and their wanderful effect is quickly felt, especially in the apperite and digestion. It was this modern, scientific treatmen which cared Mrs 1 onng. She mys :

Mrs Young. (From Photograph by Turnbull & Sons. Gias, orr.

Some time ago I was operated upon for Pollard, Mrs Fulton and child, Mrs, Miss a serious inward complaint, which left me and Master Bull and 2 children, Rev. and weak and ill. I hardly had strongth Mrs J. M. Graham and child, Captain W. emon b to wak. Everything I did was Denning, Capt. James Potter, Surg. C. J. painful, . I seemed almost bloodless. If I Rowan, R.N., Mesers J R. Owen, A. walked but to the end of this street I felt Dave, E. J. Collings, J Minto, J. Laing, so faint that I clotched at the railings to W. Saddon, C. J. Smith, R. G. Austin; avoid f. Hing I could see black specks in and R. C. P. Richards. From Yokoh ma from of my eyes, making me partially for London, Mr and Mrs H. W. Beckland, bland. Tois rearly darmed me, as I had Me srs S Takashima, N. Hayashi, and C. a great herror of going blind. In the W. Arnould. m ming I felt sick, my mouth was dry, and my breath horriale. I really thought that I was slowly but surely dying.

'I chanced to read of a person who had been cured of a similar complaint by Dr. Williams Fink Pills for Pale People, and Clintock, F. W. Lisk, J. R. Twentyman, I decided then and there that I would try [| Japanes 1 Filipino, and 44 Chinese. thom. I was amezed at the improvement even before I had got through the first nese. bottle. Food, for which I had had such a diseaste, was now enjoyable, and by the time I had finished the contents of the second bout e. I was in splendid health. I could walk about with case, and could mount the stairs without stopping for breath ; and I had no more of the fearful headaches which had been so overpowering. The nesty teste in my mouth also disappeared, as well as the sickness in the morning. I need to be as white as the tablecloth, but since taking Dr. Williams' Pipk Pills I have had a healthy colour. And they have had another effect on me. Before taking them my hair began to come out; now it has grown thick'y again. No doubt my hair was effected by the general weakness of my constitution. I have been altogether a different woman since taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pill.

Dr. Williams Pink Pills for Pale People are not a cure all. They cure the one thing that is the cause of numerous diseases-poor blood. Acting on the blood, and on the nerves through the blood, they have cured Ansemia, Bile, Consumption, Bronchitis, Eczema, Fits, Gout, Heart Disease, Paralysis, and the ailments which women suffer in silence. The full name on the pink wrapper is a guarantee of genuineness. Refuse pink pills that don't bear Dr Williams' name. You can send direct for the pills to Dr Williams' Medicine Company, Holbornviaduct, London, enclosing the price, 2s. 9d. (or 13s. 9d. for six bottles): but the best plan is to ask for them at a shop where they sell you what you ask for and don't try to palm off Substitutes upon you. Substitutes never cured anyone, but they bring more profit to the shopkespers who try to sell them, and who would rather make more prefit for themselves than supply what will really do you good. You should avoid Substitutes and the people who keep them.

Natural Modesty. THE natural modesty of many peo who have used Chamberlain's Colic and Districes Remedy for Districes. Dysontery, etc., with splendid results, make them hesitate about giving their opinion for publicity. Still these same people have done much to make Chamberisin's Colic and Diarrhosa Remedy s household word, for they have by word of month informed their friends what a good medicine it is to have in the house. Once used, always kept, follows this medicine around the world. For sale by all chemists and medicine vendore Warring Ltd. General Agenta
